Here is your arrival day in London! Red-eye flights are common when coming from the USA. Beat jet lag with Erica's formula: (1) Be active, (2) Do something memorable, (3) Have a lively dinner. The secret is No Napping! Click here for the Google Map Route. Total walking time is 1 hour and 20 minutes, on paved sidewalks. Take the Underground to South Kensington Station if you're not staying in West End. Download this itinerary to your mobile device (clickable links) or print it.

A. Sydney House Chelsea

We stayed in Chelsea on this trip. This is a classic London, no frills, townhouse hotel with breakfast and a great location. £214 - 314

B. Serpentine Paddle Boats

Walk Hyde Park, go to the Serpentine Cafe, or head out on the paddle boats! Directions to Paddle Boat Kiosk. £13 per adult

C. Exhibition Road

Walk from Hyde Park down Exhibition Road, home to V&A Museum, Science Museum, and Imperial College

D. Natural History Museum

The end of the day means no lines! Enter Hinz Hall and see the dinosaur exhibits to the left. £0

E. Builders Arms Pub in Chelsea

There are a few Builders Arms so find the right one. See our Pub Guide for more ideas. Directions. £15-20

F. St. Luke's Churchyard

A lovely park next to a classic English church. They have a great playground!
