Today, you will enjoy a short walking tour of the Trevi area of Rome. Follow the water is the theme as you trace an ancient aqueduct. Enjoy Roman history and end the day at one of our favorite parks in Rome. Total walking time is 40 minutes, but most of that is to Villa Borghese (the park). Stops A - E are a 15-minute walk. The route includes both downhill and uphill sections on cobblestones. Download this itinerary to your mobile device (clickable links) or print it. A. Column of Marcus Aurelius

Start whenever!

A victory column that details Rome's triumph over the Sarmatians, Quadi, and Marcomanni in A.D. 176

B. Trevi Fountain

The fountain of the three roads.

Tre means three in Italian, and via means road or street, and this is how we get Tre-via or Trevi

C. Aqua Virgo, Roman Aqueduct

One of Rome's oldest aqueducts and it feeds the Trevi Fountain, over 2,000 years after its construction.

D. Vicus Caprarius - The Water City

1st century residential complex, part of aqueduct. Museum and audio tour. Tuesday to Sunday, 11:00 – 5:00. Click for reservations

E. Spanish Steps

Enjoy the crowds, the architecture, fountains, and history. Walk up to stop F.

F. Galleria Borghese

Enjoy the park and/or go to the sculpture museum. Book one month in advance. Tickets: €17
